2020 City of Roseburg Elections Information Now Available

Roseburg, OR – The City of Roseburg is pleased to announce that the 2020 City of Roseburg Election Information publication is now available to view online. Residents can visit www.CityofRoseburg.org to learn more about upcoming ballot measures, elections and other related information on the voting process. Paper copies of the publication will be made available at City Hall, which is located at 900 SE Douglas Avenue.

The election publication provides citizens with valuable information about candidates and measures that may appear on the ballot. The following measure will be on the ballot for the May 19, 2020 Primary Election:

- Measure 10-173: Roseburg Public Schools Bond Levy

To read the full ballot measure and information provided by the Roseburg School District, download the City of Roseburg Election Information publication by visiting <http://www.cityofroseburg.org/your-government/election-information>.

The publication also contains useful information on voter registration, how to vote, ballot drop off site locations and other resources. Official ballots will be mailed to registered voters approximately two weeks prior to the Primary Election.

To learn more about the City of Roseburg Election Information publication, please contact City Recorder, Amy Sowa, at 541-492-6866 or email asowa@cityofroseburg.org.

For questions about elections and voting, please contact the Douglas County Elections office at 541-440-4252.
